GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU

Office of the District Magistrate

No. COL/CONF/21/72/455

To,

The Public Generally,

Since the situation within the limits of the Taluka of Marmagao has become normal and there is no further apprehension of any disturbance taking place, the Order dated 11th March, 1972 under Section 144 of the Criminal Procedure Code is hereby withdrawn. The order shall cease to be effective with effect from 12 noon of 7th April, 1972.

Panaji, 7th April, 1972. — The District Magistrate, S. R. Arya.

No. COL/CONF/21/72/456

To,

The Public Generally,

Whereas it has been reported to me that following riots and disturbances during the past month in the Town of Marmagao, certain interested groups are deliberately spreading false rumours calculated to create tension between different groups of people and cause further breaches of the peace.

And whereas I am satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for proceeding u/s 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and that speedy and immediate prevention are desirable for the maintenance of the public peace and tranquility.

Now, therefore, I, S. R. Arya, District Magistrate of Goa, in exercise of the powers vested in me under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, do hereby order that no person shall knowingly make, publish or circulate any statement, rumour or report that he does not have reasonable cause to believe to be true and is also intended to or is likely to incite any class or community of persons to commit any offence against any other class or community, or is also intended to or likely to cause fear or alarm to the public or to any section of the public whereby any person may be induced to commit an offence against the public tranquility.

And that no person shall carry out any weapons including firearms, knives, lathis etc., in public.

An the circumstances do not permit of individual service, this order is pronounced ex-parte and is addressed to the public generally. It extends to the area within the limits of the Marmagao Municipality. It shall come into force immediately and shall remain in force until further orders.

This order shall not apply to public and other servants on duty.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court, this seventh day of April, 1972.

Panaji, 7th April, 1972. — The District Magistrate, S. R. Arya.
